

As you can see here, working with our new transition list, we can't detect any of our Uro and Copro molecules, although they are visible in the spectrum. Furthermore, PpiX is analysed as MS³ despite being measured in MS².